

Announcement about Trademark Infringement

It has been brought to our attention that the seal design logo used on the packaging and in the marketing materials of "Royal Reishi" and "Royal Cordyceps" mushroom extract herbal supplements is inarguably similar to our MIKEI logo, which is a registered trademark in North America. See below images for details.

	Infringed Trademark  Royal Reishi  Royal Cordyceps		Registered Trademark  MIKEI Red Reishi Essences  Registration number in Canada : TMA568188 Registration number in USA: 2597274

In order to protect the MIKEI brand image and the exclusive rights of MIKEI's registered trademark, Mikei entered litigations with Royal Reishi Inc. The issue has been resolved and a settlement agreement has been reached.

There is no association between Royal Reishi Inc., cba Royal Natural Health Products ('royal') and Nikkei Japan (manufacturer of Mikei Red Reishi Essences), Nikkei (Canada) Marketing Limited (importer of Mikei Red Reishi Essences and registered trademark owner of Mikei logo), and all products under Mikei brand.
2. Royal will cease all use of above infringed seal design in any advertising or marketing materials in any media, effective January 18, 2016.
3. Effective immediately, the above seal design can no longer be applied on any new packaging or labels of any products. Royal Inc. will also change their seal design to one which is acceptable to Nikkei.
4. By March 31, 2016, Royal must replace their infringed seal design on any existing products currently in the market. Alternatively, Royal Inc. will remove and replace any existing products with the infringed logo.
5. Royal Inc. will also refrain from manufacturing, importing, selling, distributing or advertising any herbal supplements in association with any trademark that will infringe upon Nikkei's registered trademark in both the United States and Canada.

Remark: All retailers and media are requested to remove all displays and products with the infringed logo to the public. Legal actions and financial damages might be taken and sought by Nikkei if the above mentioned activities are continued without further notice.

Sincerely,
